WESTON TURVILLE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

*“Liberty: the Bucks man, the London
Shop, the global style”*

Will Phillips

Meeting on Friday 27th
January, 2017

Liberty, the iconic London shop built from the timbers of HMS Impregnable and HMS Hindustan, needs little introduction. Yet the story of this world-famous department store is full of surprises, from its historical connection to Buckinghamshire to the effects of wartime on the company’s creative vision.

Will Phillips, is the Collections Officer for Social History at the Bucks County Museum. He last visited us in September 2103 when he gave a fascinating talk about the virtually forgotten “Halton Industrial Exhibition” of 1868.

The meeting starts at 8pm in the village hall and is open to all. Entrance £2 for members and £3 visitors. Doors open at 19:30 for welcoming refreshments. For further information about the Society visit the Society’s web page www.WTHSoc.org.uk or email Secretary@WTHSoc.org.uk
