WESTON TURVILLE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

“A Journey from London to York in 1820”

Hugh Granger

Meeting on Friday 29th September, 2017

September’s talk is from the popular local speaker Hugh Granger.

In May last year we were let down at the last minute by Wessex Archaeology. At short notice, Hugh Granger saved the day with his "Reeves Tale" talk.

For our September meeting, Hugh will tell the tale of an eventful, festive journey from London to York in 1820 from the point of view of a London Gunsmith called Tom Bowman, including several genuine coaching stories, and the origins of many sayings derived from the age of coaching. All the details are accurate: only the names have been changed, to protect the innocent!
Hugh

speaks on this topic, because his family ran a coaching inn in Hampshire for eight generations.

The meeting starts at 8pm in the village hall and is open to all. Entrance £2 for members and £3 visitors. Doors open at 19:30 for welcoming refreshments. For further information about the Society visit the Society’s web page www.WTHSoc.org.uk or email Secretary@WTHSoc.org.uk
